Khallifah ROSSER (USA)

400m Hurdles Men

I have to admit that this victory was a bit unexpected. But it feels good. I felt great on the track, happy to be healthy. I am very close to my PB, only 0.15. It shows that I am a better athlete this season, more consistent. Now I am gonna focus on the next step, the US trials back home. My goals this year ? Winning the US Championships, then World Championships and the Diamond League.

Soufiane EL BAKKALI (MAR)

3000m Steeplechase Men

I can't describe my happiness for winning this race. Achieving World Lead and Meeting Record in front of my audience is just incredible. I promised yesterday in the press conference that I will do a great performance and here I am keeping my promise. I want to dedicate this vitory to our king Mohammed VI and to all the Moroccan people. I would like to thank this huge crowd that came to support me and without their support it would not have been possible. I will take some rest now before starting my preparation for the World Championship which is my main goal.
